

Wild Ones of South-central PA Native Plants and Natural Landscapes invites the community to join us for our Native Plant Seed Share event and Sustainable Landscaping Presentation!

Date : Sunday, November 12th, 2023, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Where: Giant Grocery Store Community Room (upstairs)

3301 E. Trindle Rd, Camp Hill

Schedule:

1 p.m. - Seed Share - Meet our members, Ask your questions, Learn how native plants provide essential habitat for wildlife, Take home packets of seeds to grow

2 p.m. - Presentation "The What, Why and How of Sustainable Landscaping" by Tony Campisi of Campisi Property Service, LLC.

3:30 - Seed Sharing continues until 4 p.m.

Seed sowing is the most affordable way of growing native plants that are essential to the lifecycles for our native birds and pollinators whose populations have plummeted in recent years. Learn how you can make a difference and take home native plant seeds to add diversity to your yard.
